REFERENCE: Memo for C/HSRB from SRO, dated 7 Aug 85, same subject, OL 4148-85

1. The attached report, prepared for and presented to the Headquarters Survey Review Board (HSRB), pertains to a vehicular accident that resulted in damage to a Government van and a subsequent loss of $2,485.27 for repairs. In this particular case, one of the six member HSRB has non-concurred in the recommendation presented by the Survey Review Officer (SRO). Headquarters Regulation [redacted] prescribes that when there is a dissenting vote by any Board member, the HSRB must defer the case to the DDA for final action.

2. After careful and thorough evaluation of all of the available evidence in this case, the SRO concluded that the [redacted] Survey Board's recommendation to hold [redacted] liable for damages of $200.00 based on ordinary negligence is fitting and proper. [redacted] failed to exercise the necessary care and precautions in the operation of the vehicle prior to the accident. She was driving with the parking brakes partially engaged and the van's sliding cargo door fully open (protrudes 8 to 10 inches). The SRO concluded that [redacted] was preoccupied as she turned into the entrance [redacted] miscalculated the turn, and hit a post. She continued on to the parking lot unaware that she had knocked down the post, ripped off the right side rear view mirror,
